DETAILED ACTION

Claims 22-29 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claim 22-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mizukoshi (US 5,098,342) in view of the admitted prior art (see paragraphs 0003-0004 of the instant specification).

The Examiner rejects the claims on the grounds as stated in the Office Action of 11 October 2005.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 23 November 2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

The applicant argues that the article of the claimed invention is different from the article produced by the prior art carburizing process because the article of the invention is hardened only at the trunnion surfaces and trunnion shoulder surfaces, whereas the article produced by the prior art carburizing process is hardened on all its surfaces.

In response, the Examiner would like to note that the claims do not specify that only the trunnion surfaces and trunnion shoulder surfaces would be hardened. Since the claims use the transitional word "comprising", the scope of the claims include an article produced by the prior art carburizing process that is hardened on all its surfaces.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
